Sacramento Daily Union, 5/18/1874 and also the Los Angeles Herald, 5/21/1874:

William DORAN, one of the men wounded in the recent shooting scrape at Belmont, Nev., died on May 9th. He was shot through the thigh, and amputation being found necessary, that operation was performed by Dr. Moore, but the patient died soon afterwards. Sutherland, the other man shot, is said to be in critical condition.

History of Nevada (Thompson & West, 1881, p. 352):

May 16, 1874 - William DOLAN was shot and killed by H. H. Sutherland, at Belmont, Nye County, in a barroom fight. Sutherland was lynched by the citizens June 3d.
